   - vii. Rebecca Ballinger = Nathan Haines,Jr.

3. Joseph Ballinger(Henry) b 1691 in Burlington, N.J.; W.P. 19-2-1744 in Goochland Co.,Va.; = c 1720 in N.J. to Charity Wade, b 1694 in N.J.; d after 1744 in Va.; see N.J. Archives 1st Series, Vol.21: Joseph's Will found in D Bk.4, p 495, Goochland Co.,Va. - he is called, "of the Parish & county of Henrico."

There are three instances in Goochland records where Joseph's name is mistakenly spelled, Barringer. We note that with more than usual interest, as the writer's husband has worked for years on his Barringer line found in Montgomery Co., Va. On 22-8-1729 in D Bk.1,p 174, Joseph Barringer of Goochland Co., buys 128 A. on N. side of the James R. on the main fork of Bird Creek, from Henry Reynolds; consideration 15 pds.; this same land is Willed by Joseph Ballinger - see Order Bk.3, Mar.1732; case of Joseph Barringer against James Howlin, dismissed Mar. 1735; see Order Bk.4, & D Bk.3, p 372, Case Joseph Barringer and Charity, his wife, vs John Henderson (concerns a debt) . Land descriptions in every case prove that Joseph Ballinger is the person intended. The land Willed by Joseph Ballinger to his sons, Richard and Joseph is the same as in the mistaken documents. The Will of Joseph mentions, "to my wife, Charity Ballinger, 5 negroes, Jack, Ned, Nell, Bess, & Bridgett, & the rest of my estate.....
To my daughter, Charity Wade, negro girl, Phillis.....
To daughter, Abigail, negro girl, Nell .....
To daughter, Susannah, negor girl, Hannah .....
To daughter, Elizabeth, negro boy, Guy .....
To my son, Joseph, 50 pds. when he is of age 21 years
To my son, Richard, 50 pds, when he is of age 21 years
My land in the mountains to be equally divided by my sons, Joseph and Richard.....
Exec. my two sons-in-law, Jeremiah Wade and Pearce Wade, my wife, Charity Ballinger and friend, Thomas Cawthon.
Wit. William Street, James Smith, Nichols Neal

Henry Ballinger, father of Joseph, gave his sons, Joseph, Josiah, and Henry, 1200 A. of land in Salem, N.J. which they sold.They had joined a group of Quakers headed by Alexander Ross, and Morgan Bryan in a plan to move to the Shenandoah Valley of Va. - Joseph's royal grant is recorded in Goochland Co., Va. Joseph began life as a Quaker, but as he conformed to the ways of Virginia planters, and bought slaves of his own, he clashed with the teachings of the Friends, and perhaps was disowned by them, although we do not have any record of his disownment. Joseph and his family became members of the established Church of England; Joseph became a minister of the church and performed many marriage ceremonies, according to Lenora Higginbotham Sweeney in AMHERST COUNTY VIRGINIA, p24. Both of Joseph's sons, Joseph,Jr., and Capt. Richard, were active in the support of the church, in fact, Bishop Meade's OLD CHURCHES, mentions a church built in 1749 by Rev. Joseph Ballinger(the son of Rev. Joseph, the elder.

Joseph Ballinger and Charity Wade Ballinger had 7 ch:
- 11. i. Mary Ballinger = Pearce Wade
- ii. Charity Ballinger = Jeremiah Wade; they lived in Bedford Co.,Va., where his Will was proved on 28-9-1772; mentions "my children" but no names
- iii. Abigail Ballinger, b in N.J.
- iv. Susannah Ballinger
- v. Elizabeth Ballinger, b 1729 in Maryland
- 12. vi. Capt. Richard Ballinger = Elizabeth Franklin
- 13. vii. Joseph Ballinger,Jr. = Sarah Franklin

4. Henry Ballinger (Henry) b 5-8-1695 in N.J.; d 4-5-1774 in Guilford Co., N.C.; rocf Salem M.M. in N.J. by New Garden M.M. in Penn. on 27-4-1726 for the purpose of marrying, which he did on 18-6-1726 before the Nottingham M.M. to Hannah, b 24-1-1709, d/o James and Mary (Davis) Wright. They got Hopewell M.M. in 1735; to Fairfax M.M. in 1744; and were rec'd at Cane Creek M.M.,N.C., on 21-6-1751. It was in Union Co., located on a tributary of the Tyger R. See Hinshaw, Vol.I, p 372; p 490 tells of their move to New Garden in Guilford Co., where the whole family is listed in the Minutes of the M.M. Many cousins trace to this marriage; our thanks for careful research and well kept family records go to Helen Griffin McNary, Mabel Bortner Pilgrim, Ruth Thompson, Rita Hineman Townsend, and to Carl B. Hawkins.

New Garden M.M. Minutes tells that Rachel and Martha were disowned 25-6-1768; John got Philadelphia,Penn., on 25-6-1768; disowned 27-10-1770. There were 9 ch :

Josiah is listed as one of fathers of the Colony in Frederick Co.,Va.; he owned 500 A. on Apple Pie Ridge, north of Winchester, which in that day was known as Fredericktown. This land was still in the possession of Ballinger descendants in 1800. W Bk 1, p 223, dated 4-9-1748; W Pr.7-12-1748 :

" To my son, James Ballinger, when he comes of age,100 A. of land next to Thomas Babs, and next to my father-in-law, James Wright.....

To my eldest son, Josiah Ballinger (after his mother's decease, the rest of my land..... 206 A.....

To my daughter, Sarah Ballinger, a mare named,Phoenix, the side saddle; 2 sheep; a milk cow; and a bed .....

To my wife, Mary Ballinger, the use of the plantation for life, and she to be Exec. of my Will.....

Wit. James Wright,Sr., John Williams, Rachel Clifton,..... HOPEWELL FRIENDS HISTORY, p 463 lists the children and date birth. P 240 gives the marriage of Sarah Ballinger to Evan Rogers; p 370 gives the marriage of James Ballinger to Lydia Taylor; Hinshaw, Vol.6, p 358 quotes from Samuel Smith's HISTORY OF PENNSYLVANIA, compiled in 1752 at the direction of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting :

"About the year 1725, Henry and Josiah Ballinger from near Salem in West Jersey, settled the upper parts of Prince George Co., Md., near a large Creek called Monoquesey, (Monocacy)..... A meeting of the Friends was held at the house of Josiah Ballinger," The group continued to meet in the home of Josiah until the Monthly Meeting of Nottingham was established in 1730.... ibid, p 357, "

"In 1735, or soon after, Josiah Ballinger moved to the Shenandoah Valley, where he and his father-in-law, James Wright, Sr., were instrumental in establishing Hopewell M.M. sometimes called Opeckan, in what was to become Frederick Co.,Va." Frederick Co. D Bk.1,(1743 - 1749) p 119, on 11-8-1744, Josiah Ballinger of Frederick Co., sells to James Wright, of the same county,(both designated as husbandmen) 194 A. of land being part of a patent to him dated 12-9-1735 for 500 A..... acknowledged & Recorded 14-9-1744.

Josiah was about 10 years older than his wife, and he died at a comparatively early age; Mary was still living as a widow many years later, when The Hopewell Friend's History, pp 23, 24, mentions that Braddock's Army under the command of Col. Dunbar was at Widow Ballinger's 3 May 1755. And fifty years after Josiah's death, on 9-4-1798, Superior Court Deed Bk. 3, (1796-1799) p 367, Mary Ballinger, Jacob Smith and Patience, his wife, of Frederick Co.,Va., sell to Meredith Helm of the same county and state, for 2,090 pds. .... 209 A. of land on both sides of Sir John's Road on the Drains of the Opeckan.... being part of 500 A. granted to Josiah Ballinger 23 Apr. 1735, and which he Willed to Josiah Ballinger,Jr. on 4 Nov.1740.... Pr. 10-4-1798, & Recorded.

This Patience, wife of Jacob Smith, was Mary Ballinger's grand daughter, the daughter of Josiah Ballinger,Jr., selling land coming to her from her father's estate.

Frederick Co. Court Orders, (1745-1748) Bk. 2, p 28, date 4 Mar.1745;"Ordered that William McMeachen, Gent., Alexander Ross and Josiah Ballinger to view, mark and lay off a road the nearest and best way from Morgan Morgan's,Gent., to the Court -house, and George Hollingsworth is hereby appointed overseer from the Courthouse to the house of Josiah Ballinger, and the said Josiah Ballinger from his house to Morgan Morgan's, and it is further ordered that the tithables living within 2 miles of each side of the said road, clear and work on the same, and that said George Hollingsworth and Josiah Ballinger keep the said road in good repair according to the law."

20. Josiah Ballinger,Jr.(Josiah,Henry) b 24-11-1728; = Elizabeth -------; Superior Ct.D Bk.3, (1796-1799) p 367, date 9-4-1798, Mary Ballinger, mother of Josiah,Jr., Jacob Smith and Patience, his wife, of Frederick Co.,Va... sell to Meredith Helm of the same County, for 2 pds,9 sh. 209 A. of land on both sides Sir John's road on the Drains of Opeckan..... being part of a 500 A. grant to Josiah Ballinger,Sr., 23-4-1735, which he Willed to Josiah Ballinger,Jr., 4-11-1740..... pr & Rec. 10-4-1798. Hopewell Friend's History, p 497, tells that Josiah,Jr. and his brother, James, were accused of killing a mare belonging to Richard Colvit, and hiding it. The records of this affair are to be found in Maryland Hall of Records, Annapolis,Md. At the M.M. 7-9-1763, the preparative meeting brought a complaint , as told above. This meeting appoints Henry Rees and Enos Ellis to treat with the said James and Josiah Ballinger respecting their misconduct and make a report at the next meeting

At the M.M. 3-10-1763, the Friends appointed by the last meeting to treat with James and Josiah Ballinger, report that they deny the charges against them; therefore this meeting appointed Morris Rees,Jr., Richard Ridgeway, Jonathan Parkins and William Barritt to treat further with them, and see them and their accuser, William Rainey, face to face, and make report at the next meeting.

At the M.M. 7-11-1763 , the committee appointed by last meeting to see Josiah and James Ballinger and their accuser, face to face, made report to this effect: that they have heard the matter debated and are of the judgement that said Josiah and James Ballinger are not clear of the fact laid to their charge, and notwithstanding they persist to deny it, and it is the judgement of this meeting that their denying of it adds to their fault, they ought to be testified against; therefore the meeting appoints Joseph Lupton and Jonathan Parkings to draw up testimonies against the said Josiah and James Ballinger and bring to next monthly meeting for approbation.

At the M.M. of Hopewell, held 5-12-1763, there was a testtimony produced against Josiah and James Ballinger which were read , approved and signed, and the meeting appointed Joseph Lupton and Jonathan Parkings to read them to them, and give copies, if they are inclined to appeal, but if not they are to read them at the close of the First Days meeting and return them to be recorded.

At the M.M. of Hopewell, held 6-2-1764, the Friends appointed to read the testimonies against Josiah and James Ballinger report that they have done it, and they do not incline to appeal, and they are read at the close of a First Day Meeting, and are in the hands of the Clerk for recording.

The Court Records of Frederick Co.,Va. were searched and this matter never came to Court. We do not have a record of James and Josiah's confessing fault and asking to be taken back into the Society, but they evidently were, for their move to Newberry Co., S.C. was accompanied by Certificate from Hopewell to Bush River M.M. This unpleasantness over livestock running loose was the cause of many neighborhood feuds. and may have been a contributing factor in the decision to move. It would be interesting to know if Friend Rainey moved, also. See Hinshaw Vol. VI, pp 445, 446.

This concludes what we know of the first four generations of the Ballinger family, and brings us to the dawn of the nineteenth Century - the Century which saw the growth of several influences which sorely tried the faith of the Friends' Society. Two of these influences were brought about by the growing conviction that it was impossible, both economically and spiritually to compete in the South with slave holders. The second influence was the trend to accept a set Creed, which would limit the doctrinal foundation of the Society.

In the first place, the Friends condemned the custom of slavery on all grounds, but as more and more of them moved into Virginia, Georgia and the Carolinas, the Quakers relaxed their rule and many did become slave holders. They reasoned that it was impossible to operate a big plantation without more help than even a large family could provide on its own power. On the other hand, the Quakers took the lead in trying to provide educational advantages to the Indians and negroes. They argued that these groups would never qualify as free men until they were provided some basic literacy and the knowledge of some trade or skill by which they could earn a livelihood.

As agitation over slavery - already begun before the American Revolution - was intensified, many states passed laws prohibiting the education of slaves. The Quakers protested these laws, but were outnumbered in the battle and had to give up their schools until after the Civil War.

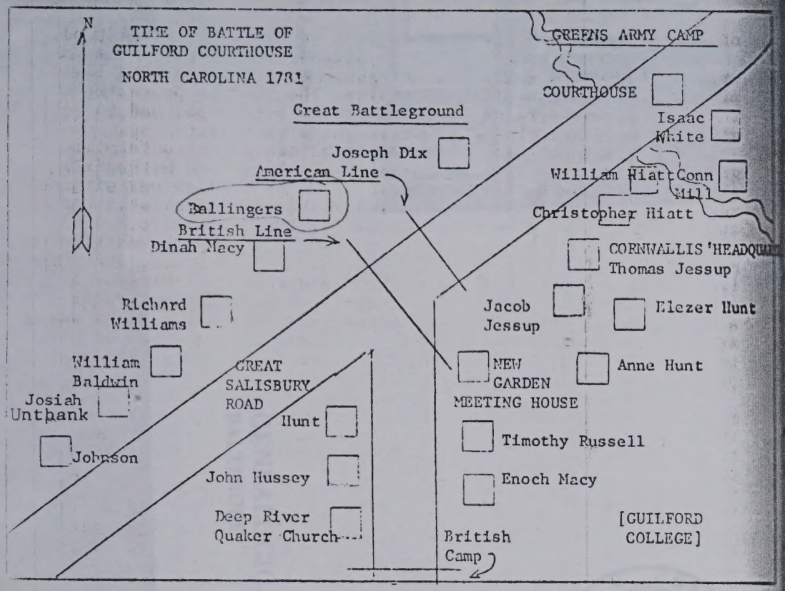
In the second place, the growth of other non-conformist groups, about this time, such as the Baptists and Methodists showed the Quakers that more aggressive evangelism was winning converts, sometimes from the folds of the Society itself.When the Quakers first moved into Virginia, their religion had a strong appeal to the frontiersmen, and their growth was steady; now, their growth was slowed until they were alarmed. The English Society of Friends had already adopted a set Creed - a step opposed by most American Quakers, but the group urging a set creed was becoming more vocal. For one, Elias Hicks was alarmed by the trend against the old quietism, and set to work to build his own theology, which became known as the Liberal or Hicksite branch of the Society.

The Orthodox branch, composed mainly of the group who moved away into Virginia and the Carolinas, also spear-headed the westward migration a little later. The result has been that they greatly out-number the Liberal or Hicksite branch of the Quaker Society.

The successful conclusion of the American Revolution and the dawn of the nineteenth Century witnessed a growing awareness of the seriousness of the problem of slavery. Here and there, individual spokesmen took the lead in agitating for abolition. One such man was not of the Ballinger family, but was closely allied with one branch of the family. The Rev. Zachariah Dicks was a brother to Nathan Dicks who had married Mary, daughter of Henry Ballinger II.

Rev. Zachariah was an eloquent speaker, and even before the Revolution had established an enviable reputationfor his appeal to the masses of people. He had prophesied the Revolution years before it was generally accepted as inevitable. At New Garden in North Carolina, he foretold that their meeting house would be stained with human blood. At the Battle of Guilford Courthouse, the wounded from both sides were carried into the church and cared for by the Quakers. The dead were given graves in the Quaker burying ground.

The following chart shows clearly the situation at Guilford. Many descendants have claimed Daughters of the American Revolution elligibility for the work done by their ancestors that day in nursing the wounded, and comforting the dying.



The Quaker settlement at Bush River, founded in 1770 in Newberry Co., S.C., was growing and prospering. It included many slave holders who were determined not to be swayed by preaching of Rev. Zachariah Dicks. Rev. Zachariah was equally determined that they should follow the path of Truth. He made good use of a recent slave uprising in Santo Domingo, in which hundreds of whites were massacred, and predicted that the same thing would surely happen there unless they freed the slaves. At last, his insistent warnings produced results and by 1806 Bush River M.M. was laid down; because only a dozen or so Quakers were left in S.C. The old Meeting House stood unused for many years, collecting stories of unhappy spirits wandering in and out on dark nights. The few who remained were absorbed into other churches, for the Quaker M.M. was no more. The people had moved in droves to the western part of N.C. which later became Tennessee, and to Ohio - later spreading into Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri.

It will be seen by these migrations that the Ballinger family was widely scattered, even before the Revolutionary War. A glance at the REVOLUTIONARY CENSUS OF NEW JERSEY , by Kenn Stryker-Rhodda , published in 1872 by Polyanthos Press shows :

mending him to the British government as a competent judge and a man in every way honorable and responsible. In that year he shipped a carload of horses to England and later shipped another, making the trip with them and making very successful sales. For some fifty years Mr. Martin shipped many carloads of horses to the Boston and New York markets and probably handled more good draft horses than any other dealer shipping to eastern markets, at times shipping three and four carloads per week.

Mr. Martin owned some five hundred acres of land in Huntington and Union townships, which included the home which was built by his grandfather, Elijah Martin, and the home farm. This land is still owned by members of the family.

In the year of 1862 Mr. Martin was united in marriage to Catherine, daughter of Robert Stephenson, and they had eight children, of whom three and his wife are deceased. Their names follow: Minnie, Fannie, Edmund, Bernie and Maggie. Mary, Eva and Katie are deceased. Mrs. Martin died February 18, 1889, and was buried February 20th, the forty-ninth anniversary of her birth.

Mr. Martin was a staunch Republican and, although a busy man, always took an active interest in all affairs.

HON. JOHN SHAW.

Hon. John Shaw, deceased, figured prominently in the affairs of Clermont county for many years, and his enterprise and capabilities won for him an honored name. He was a farmer and stock raiser, being one of the first to introduce the Durham Short Horn cattle into the county, also making a specialty of well bred sheep and hogs. Mr. Shaw was a large land owner, having tracts of land in Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana, some of which is still in the family. Mr. Shaw was born in Ohio township, Clermont county, April 1, 1810, and died November 1, 1896, having spent his entire life in the county.

In political views, Mr. Shaw was an earnest Democrat, giving his support to that party throughout his active life. He served the county in the office of deputy county auditor and was a member of the constitutional convention, in 1873.

Hon. John Shaw was a son of John Shaw and a grandson of James Shaw, the latter being born in Belfast, Ireland, coming to America, alone, when he was fifteen years of age, about 1770 or 1771, he having been bound out. The family to whom the boy, James, was bound, settled in York county, Pennsylvania, and when the Revolutionary war broke out he enlisted in the army under Lafayette, serving throughout the war. James Shaw brought his wife and family, in 1795, to Limestone (now Maysville), Ky., but shortly after settled near Alexandria, Campbell county, Kentucky, where he secured and improved considerable wild land. After living to a good old age, James Shaw passed peacefully away, in 1825, leaving an untarnished record and an unspotted reputation.

John Shaw, son of James, was born in 1779. As a young man he served two terms, at different times, in the Ohio legislature. About 1808, John Shaw located in Monroe township, Clermont county, Ohio, where he secured a large tract of wild land, which he improved and resided on until his death, in 1847. He was of Scotch-Irish descent and was reared a strict Presbyterian, but became a believer in the Universalist doctrine. John Shaw served in the War of 1812, receiving an honorable discharge. He married Nancy Morin from Culpeper county, Virginia, who came by horseback to Kentucky with her father, the family settling in Campbell county. She and her husband reared six sons and four daughters to maturity, all of whom are married. James, the eldest son, went to Texas when a young man, and was a pioneer and active in the early political history of that State, and served in the Mexican war. The second, John, is the subject of this review. Robert and Joseph went to Missouri, the former being killed in the Civil war, he being a carrier of the mail and a Union man in belief. Jonathan served two terms as county commissioner in Clermont county, residing in Monroe township.

The Hon. John Shaw married Miss Ida Webb, who was born near Cincinnati, September 17, 1812, and died September 8, 1900. She was a daughter of General Clayton and Jane (Riggs) Webb, the latter a daughter of a Revolutionary soldier and a resident of New Jersey. Gen. Clayton Webb served in the War of 1812, and was a personal friend of William Henry Harrison. General Webb was one of the early settlers of Hamilton county, Ohio, and was a member of the early Ohio legislature. He owned a great deal of land about Newtown.

An unusually long life together was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, they having been married sixty years, lacking three months. To their union were born five children:

Nancy, who married Francis E. Bettle, of Ohio township.

Clayton W., who died a soldier of the Civil war, a member of Company M, Fifth Ohio cavalry.

James Fremont, who resides in Campbell county, Kentucky, aged sixty-five years. He married Miss Lula Reed, who died in 1912. They have five sons and two daughters.

John C., farmer and stockman of Monroe township, married, 1875, Miss Sallie Goble, a daughter of Stephen and Alice (Brown) Goble. They have had four children, three of whom are living.

Viola, who is the wife of Elwood Reed, of Detroit, Mich. They have two children living.

When Mr. Shaw was called to his final rest, Clermont county lost one of its most valued men, whose business success came to him through the utilization of opportunities and the recognition of the fact that the present, not the future, is the time to put forth one's best efforts and energies for the attainment of success. He was never remiss in his duties whether in office or out of it, and was an advocate of all progressive measures for the general good of the community, ever ready to give his aid to all worthy enterprises. His life was active and his actions manly and sincere.

REV. MATTHEW GARDNER.

The death of Rev. Matthew Gardner on October 10, 1873, removed from Southern Ohio a man whose life work was in the ministry of the Gospel and whose life was devoted to doing good—a sincere Christian gentleman whose memory is held dear not only in the hearts of his descendants, but by his legion of friends and their families.

The birth of Rev. Matthew Gardner occurred in Stephentown, N. Y., December 5, 1790. His forefathers came from England to America and settled in Rhode Island about 1685 or 1690. Being devoted adherents of the principles of George Fox, and of the religious denomination of Friends, commonly called Quakers, a people not tolerated by the Puritans then settling in Massachusetts and Connecticut, they settled in Rhode Island, where all forms of religious worship and all varieties of doctrines were tolerated.

Rev. Gardner's father was born in Rhode Island September

13, 1760; his second wife, nee Lucy Hawks, was born in Connecticut September 29, 1762. The father, when ten years of age, removed with the family to New York, locating near the Massachusetts State line in what is now Rensselaer county, and when about seventeen years of age went into the Revolutionary army. After independence was gained he returned home and settled on a farm of thirty acres of poor land, leasing the same, as was then the custom. He was a carpenter and supported his family mainly by work at his trade. There were ten children, of whom Rev. Matthew Gardner was the fourth.

When he was eight years of age the boy Matthew was hired out, but two years later, in 1800, the father sold his leasehold and the family started, September 1, 1800, for the northwestern territory of Ohio, having but one small wagon, with three horses, and other means correspondingly limited. They reached Pittsburgh, then a small village, by October 1, and then were joined by four other families, all flatboating down the Ohio river. Four weeks later they arrived at Limestone, now Maysville, Ky. The father traded two horses for one hundred acres of land on the Ohio side, now Brown county, landing two miles below the site of Ripley. The father and sons erected a cabin into which the family moved about January 1, 1801.

In 1809 Matthew Gardner left home and went to Cincinnati, where he hired on a flatboat going to New Orleans, reaching there in May. About the time of arrival in New Orleans he suffered a severe spell of fever and there during the illness became converted and was ever after a devout Christian. After a long, hard trip he reached home October 20, 1809, and began studying preparatory to entering the ministry. He was baptized in the West fork of Eagle creek by Elder Archibald Alexander in October, 1810. Religious meetings were frequently conducted by this Christian preacher at the Gardner home. The church where Rev. Gardner began preaching was organized by Elder Alexander in the fall of 1810 and was one of the first Christian churches in Southern Ohio. Rev. Gardner followed the carpenter's trade for some years. He received his first letter from the Kentucky Conference, of which he was a member, September 8, 1812.

On May 20, 1813, he was wedded to Miss Sally, daughter of Jeptha and Sally Beasley, and in July of the same year he enlisted as a soldier and went to Upper Sandusky for a short Ripley, where they remained three years, then returned to the neighborhood of Georgetown. In 1890 they became residents of Washington township, Clermont county, where they purchased ninety-four and one-half acres of good farm land. They own another farm of one hundred and seven acres close by and both are in a high state of cultivation. The house has been improved, new barns have been erected and the place put into first-class condition. Mr. Houser carries on general farming and pays considerable attention to stock raising. He raises considerable tobacco and finds this a paying industry. He began operations in a small way and has prospered by dint of industry and perseverance.

January 31, 1883, Mr. Houser was united in marriage with Miss Margaret Jennings, a native of Brown county, born September 15, 1855, daughter of John A. and Sarah (Carter) Jennings, also reared in that county. Mr. Jennings was born in Sussex county, Delaware, in 1831, and died in 1900, and Mrs. Jennings was born February 24, 1831, in Brown county, Ohio, and died February 1, 1908, both being buried in Brown county. Mr. Jennings came to Brown county when he was four years of age with his father, who was a farmer. He was drafted for service in the Civil war, but hired a substitute. He and his wife had the following ten children, all born in Brown county: Mrs. Houser; Martin, Grafton and Levi, of Higginsport, Brown county; Luella, wife of Alva Bolander, of Brown county; George, also of Brown county; Elizabeth, wife of James Ware, of Augusta, Ky.; Adeline, wife of Charles Shinkle, of Brown county; James and John, of Brown county. Mr. Houser is a Democrat in politics and was a candidate for county commissioner in 1912, being elected by a large majority. He has never been an office seeker, but believes it every good citizen's duty to see that the affairs of the town and county are well taken care of. Mrs. Houser is a member of the Christian church at Feesburg. Mr. Houser began life on his own account with nothing whatever in the way of worldly possessions, and when he had been able to save some money and marry he and his wife worked side by side to better their condition. They count their friends by the hundred and are most highly respected as members of the community.

Three children blessed the union of Thomas J. Houser and wife, namely: Archie C., born July 4, 1884; John W., born July 4, 1886, married Miss Eunice Wile, and they reside in Washington township; Roy J., born January 29, 1888. The oldest and youngest sons are at home and carry on the farm. All three were born in Brown county and are exemplary young men and a credit to their parents.

JAMES HARVEY DAY.

James Harvey Day has one of the prettiest homes in Washington township, well located and well kept, and his barn is one of the finest in the county. He has a genial heart and disposition and is entirely a self-made man. He has a refined, nice family, and is well regarded by the whole neighborhood. Mr. Day was born three miles from his present farm, April 7, 1852, son of John and Sarah (Beckelhymer) Day. The father died when James was an infant and the mother, who was a native of Washington township, was born in 1832 and died in 1877. The father was buried in Brown county and the mother in Washington township. In the family were the following three children, all born in Washington township: James Harvey, Matilda Olive, wife of Joseph Manning, of Tate township; Florence May, wife of Ed Canter, of Tate township, the last two children being of the mother's second marriage, to Mr. McPheeney. His father had been married before and had four children by his first marriage.

Mr. Day attended school in Washington township and remained with his mother until she died, working for her and sometimes on neighboring farms. In 1877 he married Miss Hester Trees, who was born in Washington township, in 1852. She was the daughter of James and Paulina (Sapp) Trees, natives of Clermont county and farmers of Washington township. The grandfather, John Trees, had twelve children, namely: William, John, Jacob, Perry, James and Wesley, all deceased; Jackson, of Kansas; Marion, of Washington; Polly, deceased, was the wife of John Allman; Elizabeth, deceased, was the wife of Eli Annacost; Caroline, wife of Jerry LeMar, also deceased; Eveline, wife of John Whidmire, is also deceased. James Trees was married twice and by his two wives he had fifteen children, eight of whom are deceased. Mrs. Day died October 13, 1882, and is buried in Point Isabel cemetery. She is survived by one son, Charles.

born in Franklin township, October 30, 1880, who married Miss Daisy Brady, on October 21, 1906, and they have three children: George Harvey, born September 9, 1907; Mabel Bell, born October 30, 1908, and Harley Wilson, born July 24, 1912.

On September 9, 1886, Mr. Day married (second) Miss Emma F. Purkhiser, who was born on the farm where she and her husband now reside, although the house in which she was born burned down. She was born June 25, 1862, and is a daughter of John S. and Sarah L. (Sells) Purkhiser. Mr. Purkhiser was born in Washington township, May 29, 1819, and died January 14, 1900, and his wife, who was born in Lewis township, Brown county, December 2, 1822, died November 29, 1884, and they are buried in Calvary cemetery. The family were among the earliest settlers of Clermont county. They had six children, all born on the farm where Mr. and Mrs. Day now reside, namely: Michael Henry, deceased, was born November 20, 1844; William McKendry, deceased, born May 30, 1851; Mary Elizabeth, deceased, born September 28, 1855; Lorenzo Gilbert, deceased, born February 18, 1859, died in June, 1880; Emma Florence, Mrs. Day, the only one of the children now surviving, and she cared for her father the last ten years of his life.

After marriage Mr. Day carried on farming in Franklin township some twelve years, and in 1890 came to Washington township, erecting his present beautiful home some time later. He has been very successful as a tobacco raiser and makes a specialty of stock raising. He is an enterprising and progressive farmer and has been quite successful. The farm contains a fine spring of water that is never dry. Mr. Day is a Democrat in politics and has served as school director, and he and his wife take great interest in the affairs of the community. He belongs to the Christian church and she to the Methodist church. They have had three children: The first born, a girl, died in infancy; Sarah May, born in Franklin township, January 30, 1890, has been a music teacher and lived at home. She was married on March 5, 1913, to John D. Bee, of Tate township. He is a farmer; John Foster, born in Washington township, July 4, 1894, lives at home and helps carry on the farm. Mr. Day had several relatives who served in the Civil war from Ohio. Michael, James M., George and Jackson Beckelhymer served, the first three (the elder) in Company B, Fifty-ninth Ohio volunteer infantry, and Jackson in the three months' service. An uncle of Mrs. Day, Michael Gilbert Purkhiser, was a Methodist preacher. Both Mr. and Mrs. Day belong to old families of the region, having lived all their lives in the community in which they now live. They are well known and have many friends.

MARK D. ROSS.

One of the extensive farmers and large stock raisers of Clermont county, Ohio, representing a family that is most highly respected and one that has been prominently identified with the growth and progress of the county for many years, is the gentleman whose name heads this sketch. Mr. Mark D. Ross is the owner of a beautiful farm of one hundred and forty-seven acres and the substantial buildings and the comfortable modern home indicate great energy and thrift, combined with a love of the beautiful. Mr. Ross makes a specialty of fine horses, handling only the very best bred stock which he sells at his home. Mr. Ross is a son of Abner and Mary (Day) Ross, and was born in Lewis township, Brown county, Ohio, in 1844.

Abner Ross was born near Georgetown, Ohio, and was a son of William and Katie (Harper) Ross, the latter of Harper's Ferry, Va., and the former a native of Virginia, who came to Ohio at an early date and settled in Brown county. He was by trade a cabinet maker, which he made his life occupation. He had brothers who served in the War of the Revolution. Abner Ross died in 1884 in Missouri, after an active, useful life. Mary (Day) Ross was a native of Brown county and was several years younger than her husband. To their union were born the following named children:

William, who was a trader and farmer of Missouri, died in 1911.

Rebecca, who became the wife of Samuel Cooper, died in 1887.

Sinaellen married Henry Wells, and both are deceased.

Melvina married George Jennings, and both are deceased.

Mary, who became the wife of Hampton Norris, is deceased, as is her husband.

Susan, who is the widow of Mr. McAndra, is a resident of Enid, Okla.

married with the Prathers, Fees, Frambes, Parrish and others, who formed a practical emancipation society a dozen miles to the south of Denhamstown. After the occasion demanded, another station was formed farther north at Williamsburg in the movement described as the "Irrepressible Conflict." As soon as the wilderness to the north was broken, these three points running straight through Denhamstown to the polar star became one of the earliest of the main lines of the Underground Railroad. James Sargent was an original Methodist, and, generally speaking, so were the people who came with or gathered about him.

While the most desirable tracts had been surveyed with much energy, the owners of the lands were generally distant and disposed to wait for higher prices for what had cost little but the courage to prove their claims. With no, or at least little, agency by or near to forward sales, the settlements on the Brown County side in 1797 and '98 were few. Lewis township received the familes of Charles Baum, Peter Emery and Conrad Metzgar, whose numerous posterity is to be found in both counties and far abroad. When their Pietistic ideas were not antagonized they ceased to be noticeable, and now there is no trace of the ancient austerity. After three years of scattered life that started from Maryland and stopped awhile at Manchester, and then by the Mouth of Bullskin, George Richardson came with wife and five children. His son Lemuel in 1803 married Nancy, a daughter of the most ancient hunter, Alexander Hamilton. After bearing nine children, Nancy died, and Lemuel married Mary Lapole, who had seven children and died. Lemuel then married Elizabeth Shaw, who bore eight children, making twenty-four for one father.

After bringing the products of his farm and distillery in Western Pennsylvania for several years to appease the hunger and allay the thirst of Cincinnati, Walter Wall in 1798 descended the Ohio with his family, farming implements, household utensils and domestic animals, to the mouth of Straight Creek in a flat boat, which he broke up and took out into the woods primeval of Pleasant township for a shelter until cabins could be raised and fitted from the boat boards with more than common convenience. A study of such incidents will increase intelligent admiration for the vanguards of our refinement. Jacob and Thomas Berry from Pennsylvania made their way about the same time into Pleasant township from the White Oak side. Among those who ventured with Massie to build the Station at Manchester was Benjamin Beaseley. Passing through exploits as thrilling as Highland romance if told with a wizard pen, he came at last to settle for life in Huntington township back of Aberdeen, where he practiced surveying, mostly in Adams County, and gained a handsome estate. There are conflicting accounts of Lewis Shick, whose daughter was the wife of Jacob Berry—one account assigns his coming to 1798 and others five years later. The question like some others depending upon tradition is settled by an official document. A petition presented to Governor St. Clair, January 10, 1799, probably includes most of the male inhabitants on the waters of Eagle and Straight Creek, about the close of 1798. The paper presents names of which nothing is known, which is to be expected where restless change was the rule and long residence the exception. Again, some may find a desired hint in the list:

Matthew Davidson, Thomas McConnell, Joseph Lacock, Isaac Ellis, William McKinney, William Forbes, George McKinney, Jacob Miller, John Caryon, William Lewis, Fergus McClain, Richard Robison, Henry Rogers, Thomas Ack, Valentine McDaniel, Uriah Springer, Forgy McClure, John Henry, John Redmon, Joseph Jacobs, William Lewcas, John Mefford, William Woodruff, George J. Jennings, Ichabod Tweed, Amos Ellis, James Henry, William Moore, Isaac Prickett, Tom Rogers, William Long, Joseph Moore, Benjamin Evans, Jacob Nagle, Lewis Shick, John Phillips, James Prickett, James Young, Abel Martin, N. McDaniel, Thomas Dougherty, Tom Ash, Samuel Tweed, Jacob Miller, Walter Wall.

As yet in all the region between the fringe of cabins along the river and the clapboard roofs of Williamsburg and Bethel, from Dimmitt's by Batavia to Manning's Station on Indian Creek, there was not a tree amiss from Nature's scheme. The first to plunge to the center of this savage seclusion was Jacob Ulrey, who, on March 11, 1798, camped near Bantam, on the stream that bears his name and forthwith began what was for some time the most isolated home in the Clermont side. Sixty-two years and more later, the college room-mate and new and comfortable quarters, with the modern improved seats and desks, t the place of slab seats and log fires.

The cost of the buildings and furniture ranged from $10 to $1,500.

The law of 1852 also provided for a higher grade of teachers, and a co sequent advance of compensation. The County Board of Examiners had t effect to drop all the incompetents. The result was manifest in a few year Better teachers took the place of those who were formerly employed, and a vance steps among the youth were the results, in a few years. Some oppos tion was manifested at first, on the part of parents, upon the proposed progre sive steps, but in a short time it subsided, until now, all join in urging th work.

The laws of the State required the election in each township, every yea of two Overseers of the Poor, also "Fence Viewers."

To show the operation of the Poor laws at that date, the following is given which explains itself:

STREAMS.

The Miami River passes through this township from north to south, taking a southwesterly course. It is fed by many small branches, the most important of which are Hole's and Bear Creek, the former running across the northeastern corner of the township, and emptying into the Miami on Section 16. It took its name from the Hole family, who removed from the "Station" in an early day, to land located on its banks. Big Bear Creek enters the township on Section 34, takes a southeast course, and empties into the Miami at the north limits of Miamisburg.

MILLS.

The first flouring-mill in this township was erected by William Lamme, on Hole's Creek, in a narrow gorge between the hills. This site has long since been abandoned, and a mill built by his son, David, west of the old location, and which is now in Washington Township. The next mill was that built by Philip Huiet in 1812, at "Hole's Station," an account of which is given in viz.: Christian, Michael, John, Paul, Jacob, Daniel, Elias, Amos, Mollie, Catharine, Elizabeth, Sarah, Mary. The subject of this sketch was educated in the common schools, and was brought up to farm labor. He came to Ohio with his father, and settled in Montgomery County, assisting him until he was 25 years of age. He celebrated his marriage with Elizabeth Leisure in 1849, and had three children; Horace and Lee Edgar are now living. Soon after his marriage he rented a farm and followed the honorable vocation of cultivating the soil, and was very successful, soon being able to purchase it. He remained on it but a short time when he disposed of it and purchased his father-in-law's, which he cultivated until 1866, when he disposed of it and moved to Salem, and engaged in the general merchandise business, which he continued in up to 1871; returned to the farm, and has since engaged in various pursuits up to the time he moved on his present place.

HAMILTON M. TURNER, farmer; P. O., Clayton, was born in Pennsylvania, Sept. 18, 1815. His father, John, emigrated to Ohio from Pennsylvania in 1820, and settled in Montgomery County. Mr. Turner was by occupation a farmer and distiller. He was united in marriage with Margaret Wagoner. They were the parents of eight children, viz: Nancy, Mary, James H., John W., William, Oliver P., Joseph M. and Hamilton M. Mr. Turner, by his exemplary habits, soon commanded the respect of all who knew him. As an example, to show the esteem in which he was held, he was elected representative of his county to the Legislature in 1827 and 1829, and in 1830 was elected Associate Judge in the court of common pleas. Hamilton M., the subject of this sketch, was educated in the district schools of the county, and assisted his father with the farm duties, until he was 22 years of age. He was married to Hannah Harburgh, daughter of David Harburgh, one of the early pioneers of this county. Mr. Turner raised a very exemplary family of ten children, of whom five survive, viz: Margaret, Maria, Phœbe, Harriet and Anna. In 1839 he engaged in the milling and distilling business, associating himself with his brother John, until 1842, when he drew out his interest and moved to Indiana, but failing to find a satisfactory opening, soon returned to this county, and again connected himself with his brother, who had previously taken in Jacob Heck as a partner, the firm being known as Turner, Heck & Co. They continued in business until 1848, when our subject then withdrew and formed a partnership with his brothers, John and Joseph, and built a large brick distillery on the banks of Wolf Creek, in Salem, and run it in connection with the dry goods and grocery business until 1851, when our subject drew out and purchased what was then known as the Engle mill, on the banks of the Stillwater, near where he now resides. Mr. Turner, desiring to build up a more extensive business, again entered into partnership with his brothers, and erected a large flouring mill at Greenville, Darke Co., Ohio, which they soon converted into a distillery, at a cost of $30,000. In the summer of 1844 they had the misfortune to lose the mill at Salem, it being destroyed by a stroke of lightning, which burnt it and 20,000 bushels of grain; the loss being estimated at $15,000. They immediately began the work of replacing it, which was done in ninety days. In the fall of 1856, they again dissolved partnership, our subject retaining the property at Salem, and in 1861 he disposed of his dry goods business, and gave his exclusive attention to the distillery. Having some surplus capital on hand, he purchased an interest in the firm of Walker & Moses, which he drew out at the expiration of three years, not having time to give it the proper attention; also in a short time closed out his distillery as the advance in revenue and the declining price of spirits was such, as to render it useless to continue longer. He is at present operating a saw and flouring-mill in connection with his farm. Mr. Turner is now 67 years of age, and of course the most active part of his life is spent, but he has, by untiring labor and industry, accumulated enough of this world's goods to keep him and his good and industrious wife the balance of their days.

E. F. WARNER, P. O., Clayton, was born in Randolph Township, Montgomery Co., Ohio, on the 28th day of Feb., 1828. Is a school teacher by profession, but has retired from teaching. Was married twice; his first wife's name was Catharine Caufman, died Dec. 11, 1862. In 1865 was married to Rachel A. Lasure, and have six children from second union. Minnie May, Catharine Elizabeth, Sylvia Lodema, John Elliot, Arthur Livingstone and Edith Irene, are the names of his children. John J. Warner, the father of E. F., was born in Bedford Co., Pa., in 1808; came with his father, Jacob Warner, to Randolph Township in 1812. In 1811 Henry Warner, the great-grandfather of this subject, came with all his children down the Ohio river, in flat-bottom boats from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati. The son's names were Jacob, John, Henry, Andrew, David and Daniel. The girls were Catharine and Elizabeth. They all engaged in agricultural pursuits. Each one opened a farm in said township, but all have long since "gone the way of all the earth." They founded a large settlement, known as the "Warner Settlement," far and near. There are but two of the name living in the township, E. F. Warner and Enos Warner. The present generation has migrated, and some of them are living in every western State, from Ohio to the Pacific slope, and most of them are still engaged in tilling the soil. Henry Warner, the great grandfather of the present generation, came from Wittenburg, Gemany, over a century ago, and settled in Frederick Co., Md. At the close of the revolutionary war, settled in Bedford Co., Pa., and from there migrated to Ohio in 1811.

HENRY C. WEAVER, merchant; P. O., Iamton. The father of our subject, Henry Weaver, Sr., was born in Adams Co., Pa., Feb. 22, 1815. He had the advantage of a common school education, and his early years were passed upon a farm. He emigrated to this county, settling near Little York, where he was engaged in huckstering, exchanging dry goods and groceries for produce, which he disposed of in Cincinnati. The mother was the daughter of Richard Sandhan, who was one of the early proprietors of a large and flourishing mill and woolen factory in the neighborhood of Little York, and who was also a prominent mason. As a result of this union ten children were born, seven of whom are living. Elizabeth, Mary, Annie, Jane, Wealthy, Emma and our subject, who was born in Montgomery County, March 21, 1849. After receiving instruction in the common branches, he learned the trade of a cooper, but desiring a change in occupation, two years later found him in a flouring mill. He had a taste for mercantile pursuits, and as soon as he had accumulated sufficient means, he purchased a stock of goods, and at Little York opened a dry goods store. Here he remained eight years, during which period, through habits of industry and economy, combined with business tact, had become a successful and prosperous business man, having made and saved several thousand dollars; but not content with the size of his business and location, in the spring of 1880 he built at Harrisburgh a large and commodious store-room, stocking it with a choice selection of dry goods, groceries, and, in fact, everything found in a general store. Mr. Weaver is a good citizen and an active and enterprising business man, and has filled several minor offices of honor and trust tendered him by the citizens of the community in which he resides. He was united in marriage with Catharine Mast, March 2, 1869, and the union was blessed with eight children, six of whom are now living, by names Sarah, Maud, Dixon, Harry, Wesley and William H.

WILLIAM A. WEST, carriage manufacturer; P. O., Union. William A. West is the son of William West, Sr., who was a native of Virginia, and came to Ohio with his father, in the year 1810, and settled in Green County, making the journey all the way in a wagon. Upon the breaking out of the war of 1812, he enlisted as a corporal, and for gallantry was promoted to the position of recruiting officer for Gen. Hull's army. After the surrender of Gen. Hull, was taken with the prisoners of war to Canada, where they received their parole. Mr. West joined a party of seven, and set out for their respective homes in Ohio, and during their journey, were attacked several times by the roving bands of Indians, who were at war against the settlements along the border, and became separated. When I started researching my family history a few years ago, I was fortunate to come across a book, published by Theordore E. Perkins, titled "HOCKETTS ON THE MOVE, THE HOGGATT/HOCKETT FAMILY IN AMERICA". While this book is no longer in publication, it can be obtained through your local library through the inter-library loan service. I was able to contact Mr. Perkins at:FRIENDS HOMES AT GUILFORD, #1201, 925 NEW GARDEN ROAD, GREENSBORO, NC,27410, and he was kind enough to have a copy made for me. This book is a wonderful collection of stories,letters and family tree data that helps to trace the Hoggatt/Hockett line from our original ancestors, PHILLIP HOGGATT and MARY GLENDENNING, a Quaker couple who came to William Penn's colony in Chester County, Pennsylvania in the early 1700's. PHILIP and MARY moved to Virginia with their seven children children. Their fourth child, WILLIAM HOGGATT, left home as a young man and ventured into the wilderness of northern North Carolina, making friends with the Indians and surveying land in the early 1750's. Soon his brothers and parents followed. Each son, PHILLIP,JR.; ANTHONY; JOSEPH; JOHN; and WILLIAM, acquired large tracts of land (366 to 649 acres) from the King of England. The area they settled in was known then as Rowan County. It is now Guilford County. PHILIP and MARY'S log home, built in 1754, is still standing to this day. It was moved 4 miles from its original site in southern High Point, North Carolina, to the High Point Historical Museum,in 1973, where it was restored and opened for public view as: "THE OLDEST BUILDING IN HIGH POINT". PHILIP and MARY are buried in a nearby Quaker cemetary. WILLIAM and his wife, HANNAH BEALS (from whom I descend), are buried in another Quaker cemetary about 15 miles away. WILLIAM'S head stone describes him as "FIRST SETTLER". What is most puzzling, however, is the fact that the name on the head stone is WILLIAM HOCKETT. This sudden name change is a mystery that remains to this day. Many of the decendants of PHILIP and MARY left North Carolina at the end of the 18th century and ventured into land later acquired in the Lousiana Purchase. STEPHEN HOCKETT (next in my line), son of WILLIAM, moved to Ohio, with other members of the Hockett clan. There, he acquired land grants and farmed. He was married to MARGARET THORNBURGH. They later moved on into Indiana, where their son, STEPHEN HOCKETT, JR.(next in my line), was born. He was the seventh of eleven children. STEPHEN HOCKETT,JR., joined up with other Quaker families moving west by covered wagon in 1837. His father, STEPHEN, SR., also joined the migration into southeastern Iowa, where they settled the town of Salem. STEPHEN JR.'s son, DAVID HOCKETT (my great, great grandfather), was part of that migration. DAVID HOCKETT married MARY JANE HANKS (a descendant of ABE LINCOLN'S mother, NANCY HANKS). DAVID and MARY JANE had five childern, but only three survived. JAMES and STEPHEN DAVID (my next in line) were born in Salem. NANCY ANN was born in Madison County (as in the "Bridges of Madison County"), in the town of Earlham, just about 50 miles west of Des Moines, Iowa. The land for the town of Earlham was acquired from DAVID HOCKETT, and his small prairie home is now the "HOCKETT HOUSE MUSEUM" there in the town of Earlham. The HOCKETTS of MADISON COUNTY all grew up in that small home. They included my grandfather, FRED HOCKETT who moved to Canton, Missouri in 1905, and married MARY PLANT. My father, FRED PLANT HOCKETT, (2/14/1906 to 3/28/1976) was their first child. His first child was JOHN FREDRICK HOCKETT (my half brother by my father's first wife, LILLIE MAE JEFFRIES). I am his second son(by his second wife, MAUDE ELVYN CHAMBERS, who was born in Roxboro, North Carolina, just a few miles from where this story started---where PHILIP and MARY HOGGATT lived and died).

Notes for WILLIAM HOGGATT:
Centre MM, as a Friends community, had its beginning in 1750 when William Hoggatt (Hockett), a Quaker pioneer from Pennsylvania, tied his pony to a sapling about three miles east of Polecat Creek and went down to a spring for a drink of water. A camp of Indians was nearby. He was able to convey to them that he was a Quaker from Pennsylvania, and was warmly welcomed as one of "Penn's sons." On the land which he selected, a rude log cabin was built. Other Quaker settlers came into the area, and in 1760 William Hoggatt (Hockett) married Hannah Beals at the home of Richard Beeson. Comments: What a day! All my life, it seems, I have heard that my great-grandfather, George Whitfield Platt, had been a captain in a New York regiment. Never had any confirmation of this until today. Family legend had it that he had been wounded at 2nd Wilderness. How and why he got to Topeka, Kansas I still don't know, but it's wonderful to get confirmation of family stories once in awhile. A very good site!

Reply: Delighted to be of service. That's what makes having web sites like this so much fun. Now that you know, you can catch up on your reading. I suggest that you start with Swinfen, David B. "Ruggles' Regiment: The 122nd New York Volunteers in the American Civil War." Hanover, NH: Univiversity Press of New England, 1982. 159 p. If you can't find it in a library, it is not too difficult to find a copy through used book dealers. On page 37 of that book the actions of May 6, 1864 (next-to-final day of Wilderness, I believe) are described. I quote an excerpt: "At about 1 o'clock p.m. (sic.) we moved to the right again, and lay down behind a battery and rifle pits. I have no idea what the loss of our regiment is, but it is very great. Capt. Platt, Lieut. Ostrander are both prisoners."
On page 3451 of Phisterer, Frederick, compiler. "New York in the War of the Rebellion, 1861-1865." Vol. 4. Albany, NY: Weed and Parsons, 1890, in the section on the officers' records I find:
"PLATT, GEORGE W., age 24 years; enrolled August 15, 1862, at Syracuse to serve three years.; mustered in as First Lieutenant, Company F, August 28, 1862; as Captain, March 1, 1863; wounded in action, May 6, 1864, at the Wilderness, Va.; discharged for disability from wounds, October 25, 1864; commissioned First Lieutenant, September 10, 1862, with rank from August 15, 1862, original; Captain, March 12, 1863, with rank from March 1, 1863, vice L. Moses, resigned."

Comments: Greetings: I just purchased a tintype photograph taken in an Alexandria, Virginia studio. It is a portrait of a Union officer. On the back is written "D Co. 122 N.Y. Vol." I would like to know if there might be a way to match his photo with something you may have in archive so I can determine who is pictured. If this is possible, I will e-mail the photo to you. Thank you for your assistance. Bill Knaust
